

Commending Melvin Adams

WHEREAS, Melvin Adams has served God and the Republican Party throughout his life; and

WHEREAS, Melvin Adams helped spread God's message by starting several churches and a college in Ukraine; and

WHEREAS, in response to the December 26, 2004 Tsunami, Melvin Adams lead a coordinated effort between the church he pastored called the Community Bible Church and the City of Emmett, ID to help several coastal Indian villages that had been devastated by the tsunami; and,

WHEREAS, Melvin Adams was the founding president of Renewanation, a faith-based organization that promotes education leading to a Christian worldview; and

WHEREAS, in 2016, Melvin Adams was elected Chairman of the Franklin County Republican Committee and Vice Chair of the Fifth District Republican Committee; and

WHEREAS, in 2018 Melvin Adams was elected Chairman of the Fifth District Republican Committee where he served until the end of 2021; and

WHEREAS, as Chairman of the Fifth District Republican Committee, Melvin Adams helped raise money to elect Republicans in the Fifth Congressional District, both locally and districtwide; and

WHEREAS, in his capacity as Chairman of the Fifth District Republican Committee, Melvin Adams served on the Republican Party of Virginia State Central Committee; and

WHEREAS, in 2019 Melvin Adams, with his wife Sandy, founded and presently lead the Noah Webster Educational Foundation, to reclaim America's education and culture through foundational principles and sound policy; and

WHEREAS, Melvin Adams has received much support from friends and family throughout the country including from his wife Sandy.

BE IT RESOLVED, by the delegates of the Fifth Congressional District Republican Convention and the Fifth Congressional District Republican Committee, that former Fifth Congressional District Republican Committee Chairman Melvin Adams is hereby commended for his outstanding contributions to the Fifth Congressional District Republican Committee and the Republican Party of Virginia; and,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Fifth Congressional District Republican Committee prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to Melvin Adams and his family as an expression of the District Committee's admiration for his achievements on behalf of the Republican Party and the Conservative Cause.

Ratified this 21st day of May, 2022, by the Delegates of the 5th Congressional District Republican Convention.